

ITM-IHM confers the 'Young Visionary' hospitality' award

Celebrity chef Vikas Khanna and ITM Institute of Hotel Management recently announced the 'Young Visionary in Hospitality' 2011 award, which recognizes young, talented hospitality students from across the country. The award is based on four main parameters: creativity, humility, ability to manage stress and multi-tasking. This year's award was received by Afshaa Rajkotwala, second year BAIHM student of IHM Oshiwara. A host of celebrities along with Dr PV Ramana and Lalitha Ramana were present at the function, which witnessed performances like carol singing, dance and a fashion walk.
